REF. NO. - TP2645

(2) The time within which any such claim shall be made as aforesaid shall be a period of twelve months from the date of the decision of the Authority or of the Secretary of State, as the case may be, or where an Appeal has been made to the Secretary of State against the decision of the Authority, from the date of the decision of the Secretary of State on the Appeal.

12. Any question of disputed compensation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 179 of the Act.

13. This Order shall apply to any trees specified in the First Schedule hereto.

14. This Order may be cited as the TEWKESBURY BOROUGH COUNCIL (No.141) (Becketts Lane, Greet) Tree Preservation Order 1988

NOTE: Any person contravening the provisions of this Order by cutting down, uprooting or wilfully destroying a tree, or by wilfully damaging, topping or lopping a tree in such a manner as to be likely to destroy it is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000 or twice the sum which appears to the Court to be the value of the tree, whichever is the greater, or on indictment to a fine. The penalty for any other contravention of this Order is a fine not exceeding £200 on summary conviction and, in the case of a continuing offence when the contravention is continued after conviction, a person is liable on summary conviction to an additional fine not exceeding £5 for every day on which the contravention is so continued.

If a tree other than one to which an Order applies as part of a woodland is removed, uprooted or destroyed or dies at a time when its cutting down or uprooting is authorised only by Section 60(6) of the Act relating to trees which are dying or dead or have become dangerous it is the duty of the owner of the land, unless on his application the Local Planning Authority dispense with the requirement, to plant another tree of appropriate size and species at the same place as soon as he reasonably can. Except in emergency, not less than five days previous notice of the removal, etc., should be given to the Authority to enable the latter to decide whether or not to dispense with the requirement.
